Self-Selected Reading: The Most Effective, Cost-Efficient and Most Pleasant Route to the Highest Levels of Language Proficiency for Both Majority and Foreign Language Development

Dr. Stephen D. Krashen

Emeritus Professor, University of Southern California

December 6, 2019 (Friday) 17:30–19:30

Ryoshinkan 305 (3rd floor), Imadegawa Campus,
Doshisha University

I will emphasize the importance and power of self-selected reading to increase language competence, and make the point that the best investment to make this happen is to provide access to interesting reading material. This means invest in libraries filled with books in both English and Japanese.

Free for all. No need for pre-registration.

There will be a party after the lecture.

- Time: 19:45–
- Venue: Hamac de Paradis Kanbaikan
- Fee: 4,000 yen

If you want to attend the party, please send an email with your name and affiliation to Shunji Inagaki by November 30:
